RE: Roger Goodell, NFL Et Al

Dear Federal Trade Commission;

Roger Goodell the Commissioner of the NFL et al and certain employees like Mr. Harold Henderson within the league itself have created an unfair, deceptive or fraudulent practice in the marketplace by allowing rumors to circulate within the United States of America that the league is “going after” Jerry Jones to wit: A group of NFL team owners have sent Jerry Jones a cease-and-desist warning and threatened to “punish him” if he keeps at his quest to block commissioner Roger Goodell’s contract negotiations, according to a report from the New York Times. Further, and as punishment to Jerry Jones and the Dallas Cowboys, Roger Goodell retaliated by conspiring with certain sports media outlets like ESPN, ABC, CBS, NBC et al to spin a narrative that Zeke Elliott, is in, fact guilty of Domestic Violence. This was payback because of Jerry Jones just questioning Roger Goodell’s new contract of 50 million plus lifetime perks for him and his family.

The NFL has conspired with the media and others to paint a narrative that Jerry Jones owner of the Dallas Cowboys is unfit to run his team by NOT denouncing the reports that the NFL team owners are going after Jerry Jones.

The NFL under the helm of Roger Goodall has made it impossible for me as a consumer to enjoy the Dallas Cowboys games because of the aforesaid mentioned above as well as not addressing Our National Anthem concerns, safety with CTE brain disease, not handling certain criminal cases correctly like the Ray Rice case. It is my belief that the NFL is trying to impose punishment on Jerry Jones and the Dallas Cowboys to give other teams a better advantage to win.

I am humbly asking the Federal Trade Commission to investigate the National Football League and if there is any relief that this Honorable department may find fit that will restore the completeness of American Football within the NFL private company to do so quickly and without confusion.
