Re: Adam Schefter False Allegations and Defamatory Statements against Zeke Elliott

To The Walt Disney Company Et Al

I am reaching out at this level for relief in regards to

Exhibit A: <https://twitter.com/AdamSchefter/status/927168227817480192> and

Exhibit B: http://www.espn.com/nfl/story/\_/id/21296616/lawyers-dallas-cowboys-rb-ezekiel-elliott-trying-settle-case-nfl

The tweet, article and video your employee Adam Schefter has produced for ESPN and the NFL. This story has been debunked by myself and legal experts as you can see here:

Exhibit C: <https://www.sportsplusshow.com/fake-news-adam-schefter-espn> .

Relief Requested:

I will remove my defamatory statements I received from my sources that Adam Schefter is Gay and/or in trouble for sexual harassment in the work place when you delete his defamatory tweet, video and article as well as produce a public statement via tweet stating he had a bad source of information and that he is sorry.

That is all the relief I request and I hope that you take the necessary steps to remove the libelous statements against Zeke Elliott, The Dallas Cowboys and Cowboys Nation as well as the general public.

When and if relief is granted please let me know immediately.

Please allow this email to be part of our litigation moving forward.

I will be representing myself and company propria persona. If you cannot grant the relief requested I will seek relief at a higher level.

Sincerely,

Tom Stokes
